

I call on you to hold an official public hearing in my state.

Before the disastrous 2003 decision to weaken media ownership rules (which a federal court has now overturned), you held only one official public hearing. Further, FCC officials met behind closed doors 71 times with major broadcasters – but only five times with public interest groups. And to justify your actions, you used deceptive, industry-sponsored research data.

The will of Big Media had been heeded at the expense of American citizens and democracy itself. This has to end. Before you rewrite the ownership rules, I demand an official public FCC hearing in my state, impartial and verifiable research, and transparent debates.

It is time to put the needs of democracy – a diverse, skeptical, independent and competitive media system – ahead of profit-hungry media giants.

I hope that as a tax paying citizen, my voice, as well as that of many other concerned tax paying citizens, will be heard. The bias in the media, and the lack of any true diversity in media ownership is sickening. I for one watch the news to get informed on issues important to me and my country, not to hear the opinion of a right, or left for that matter, wing pundent. Please consider what we are asking for, and bring fairness back to the media. Lest we become a dictatorship.
